

Let everyday preschool classroom activities

POP

with literacy-learning POWER!

ON A FIELD TRIP

Talk about the weather and things you see during the trip.

Sing songs and nursery rhymes during times the children are waiting.

Take photos during the trip and talk about them afterwards.

Name and point to signs and labels such as "Stop."

Take writing journals or clipboards and paper so that children can draw or write about what they see, smell, and hear.

